Much neededVon Ein KundeI saw a big stack of these books at our local book store and picked it up, because my fiance and I have been really struggling with our wedding plans. He's getting really grumpy and I'm just tired. It was fun to look through this book and all the fun pictures of cool places to go. We're going to have a regular wedding with lots people and cake but I bought this anyway. Hey, I can fantasize, can't I? I think Lisa and Sam are a riot. I loved reading about their adventures in places like Kenya. They have a real holesom way of apeaking and I liked that.0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Weddings made Simple!Von EmilyBeyond Vegas is the best book for uncovering and discovering non-traditional wedding ideas. The extensive research that Tabb and Silverstein have done on the subject simplifies an otherwise overwhelming event! The book is well-written and provides relevant and useful information such as, price ranges, obtaining a marriage license, actual phone numbers, accomodations, and activities. Beyond Vegas is a great book to buy if you're planning a wedding or know someone who needs a little wedding guidance!0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. No depth.Von Ein KundeThis book is just brief descriptions of places to go. There is not enough information to plan the trip, the details about marriage licences (for Jamaica) are incomplete and miss some of the details that have tripped up other couples.

KurzbeschreibungA guidebook to destination weddings eloping in different exotic destination around the world. Lisa Tabb and Sam Silverstein actually got married themselves in 10 of these destinations and share inside information from their personal experiences. They've also researched many more places where you can easily plan a wedding or run away to elope and get married quickly. The high price of a conventional wedding these days is driving more and more people to elope. As Lisa and Sam discovered, you can have the trip of a lifetime-- rent your own sailboat and crew for seven days in the Caribbean; dine on a stone terrace overlooking the Mediterranean on Greece's most romantic island; golf Scotland's world-renowned courses; stand on the edge of a waterfall in Hawaii -- and get married for much less than the cost of an average wedding.KurzbeschreibungA guidebook to destination weddings eloping in different exotic destination around the world. What about eloping?Dominating parents. Well-intentioned but annoying friends. Over-priced flowers and cake. A reception hall that's only opening is a Wednesday night in March. Weddings these days are too complicated, too stressful, and way too expensive, and more often than not the bride and groom just dont have much fun. So, why bother? Why not elope? Or bring a few friends and family members along and have a destination wedding.Sailing in the Caribbean? Tanning on a Greek Island? Golf in Scotland? Skiing in Wyoming? No matter what your pleasure, a romantic wedding in all of these beautiful locations is much cheaper than the average $17,000 it takes for a conventional wedding and doesn't take the usual 17 months to plan. In this personal and entertaining guidebook, married couple and travel writers Lisa Tabb and Sam Silverstein present 25 beautiful and exotic destinations that they have researched through interviews and travel--even getting married themselves at 10 different locations--that promise romance, fun, and the keeping of a couple's sanity. Lisa Tabb, a contributing editor to National Geographic's Adventure, was editor-in-chief of EcoTraveler and Adventure Business magazines and has published articles in the New York Times Magazine and Playboy. She has appeared on Fox Television and the Travel Channel. Sam Silverstein's articles have appeared in Sport, American Way, Boy's Life, EcoTraveler, Massachusetts Magazine, and Adventure Journal.
