engrossing read. Von Caroline Mueller A deeply moving book. It shows the authors deep love for the children in her care, magnified by her own past experiences.

Kurzbeschreibung Christina Noble's story is one of bravery and resilience in the face of deprivation and abuse on a scale that most would find unimaginable. Her childhood in the Dublin slums barely merits the name: after the early death of her mother, her family was split apart, her alcoholic father unable to care for his children. Christina was sexually abused and later escaped from an orphanage to live in poverty on the streets of Dublin. Whilst in an abusive marriage, in a dream she found the will to fight. Christina's hope lay in a determination to work among the street children of Vietnam, and this was the starting point for the most extraordinary part of her story. Within two years of arriving in Ho Chi Minh City she had opened a medical and social centre and achieved worldwide fame. Outspoken, often angry, yet profoundly moving, Bridge Across my Sorrows is one of the most inspirational stories ever told. Pressestimmen 'An extraordinarily moving story . . . both heart-rending and inspirational' (Cameron Mackintosh) 'Christina Noble's story is heartbreaking but finally inspiring because of her indomitable courage in the face of violence, neglect and abuse. Her spirit blazes across the page in this unforgettable book' (Sinead Cusack) 'We see a human spirit of shining dignity, courage and resilience - it is not a surprise when she ultimately turns her life into a magnificent act of love and generosity' (Mia Farrow) 'This is an amazing story - stiff with horror yet glimmering with humanity' (Claire Rayner) 'Christina Noble's account of her childhood is shattering and inspiring, a record of grief and courage that would wring a tear from a stone - the author's integrity burns white-hot on the page. No one could invent these details, few could survive them' (Dervla Murphy) Werbetext A woman's haunting past and inspiring dream that led her to rescue the street children of Vietnam
