

(Read and download) But He Calls Me Blessed! When the Unbelievable Happens to Believers (English Edition)

But He Calls Me Blessed! When the Unbelievable Happens to Believers (English Edition)

Von Sarah Udoh-Grossfurthner
audiobook / *ebooks / Download PDF / ePub / DOC

Download

Read Online

Produktinformation -Verkaufsrang: #1710712 in eBooksVerffentlicht am: 2012-09-13Erscheinungsdatum:
2012-09-13File Name: B009F3M79U | File size: 41.Mb

Von Sarah Udoh-Grossfurthner : But He Calls Me Blessed! When the Unbelievable Happens to Believers (English Edition) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised But He Calls Me Blessed! When the Unbelievable Happens to Believers (English Edition):

KundenrezensionenHilfreichste Kundenrezensionen1 von 1 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. But HE CALLS Me BLESSED! Incredible testimonies of a living relationship to God! Von Annemarie Bichsel Right now I have to give a feedback, even I did not yet finish the book completely! The Autor brought together the ability of incredible depth, knowledge of practiced Psychology, using English language in most artistic way, like a Mastervirtuose playing his Violine! and the Love for God and men! Incredible! I discovered, one thing I could not do until now with this book, bringing it along to a cafe shop reading there. I tried, but I started to cry and could not stop... Annemarie Bichsel

Kurzbeschreibung When she was just 15 years old, Rhea (a girl from a staunchly-christian background) was raped at church convention by a band of armed robbers. There followed years of incredible trauma in which she hated all things connected with God. How she found her way back to her faith is narrated by Sarah in this heart-rending book. Inspired by the thoughts of whether or not there is more to faith (and if hope can be found in the most hopeless of situations) this moving book documents firsthand accounts of people triumphing over the most difficult situations imaginable. By exploring the central question of why experiences make some people bitter and others better, this wonderful book aims to inspire as it enlightens. As poignant as it is inspiring, this remarkable work will touch readers heart as it teaches the true power of faith. (10% from the total sales of this book will go to organisations set up to help victims of Human Trafficking and abused women so far, Point of Hope and Rescue International have benefited).

Kurzbeschreibung When she was just 15 years old, Rhea (a girl from a staunchly-christian background) was raped at church convention by a band of armed robbers. There followed years of incredible trauma in which she hated all things connected with God. How she found her way back to her faith is narrated by Sarah in this heart-rending book. Inspired by the thoughts of whether or not there is more to faith (and if hope can be found in the most hopeless of situations) this moving book documents firsthand accounts of people triumphing over the most difficult situations imaginable. By exploring the central question of why experiences make some people bitter and others better, this wonderful book aims to inspire as it enlightens. As poignant as it is inspiring, this remarkable work will touch readers heart as it teaches the true power of faith. (10% from the total sales of this book will go to organisations set up to help victims of Human Trafficking and abused women so far, Point of Hope and Rescue International have benefited).

den Autor und weitere Mitwirkende Sarah Udoh-Grossfurthner is a Nigerian-born writer and poet whose work covers the highs and lows of the human heart, as seen in her many writings. A writer of both poetry and prose, her writings include Pathways of Life, her 2008 book of poetry, and numerous features in TIME magazine, Genevieve, Leadership Life Style monthly, and many other publications. Born in Southern Nigeria, her poem Mirror Image was converted into the theme song for a Nigerian breast cancer awareness concert in 2005. She holds a bachelors in diplomatic studies and a masters in professional writing from the University College Falmouth, Cornwall. She is blessed with two children and currently lives and writes in Vienna. For more information, please visit www.sarahudohgrossfurthner.com.