Von Tom Percival : Herman's Letter before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Herman's Letter:

KundenrezensionenHilfreichste Kundenrezensionen0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Can be recommended equally for all the elements that make some book for children greatVon Helpful AdviceHerman's Letter made by Tom Percival brings a beautiful story for the youngest readers that speaks about the power of everlasting friendship.Herman the Bear and Henry the Raccoon are the best friends ever since they know each for the other - growing up together, these two spent all the time together playing and exploring world around them. But one day Henry will have to move away which would made them both very sad.Still two friends agreed they will write letters each day to stay in touch, trying everything to be as close as it was before when they were spending days together. Henry will keep his promise, writing about everything what is happening in his new environment, new friends he met, even the weather, but there was no Herman's letter.Herman didn't know about what to write because life without Henry was boring, he was lonely and sad, even the rain was pouring constantly. He became even jealous that Henry will forget about him. And then letter arrived, Henry writing that he misses his friend and Herman wanted to write back. But to his surprise post office is closed for the winter, therefore Herman will need to think quick about some other way of delivering message to his old friendThis is first Tom Percival book I read, though for sure will not be the last given how well-made and charming Herman's Letter book is. The author delivered an interesting story about friendship in which many children around the world will recognize their situation separation from the best friend.Beside beautiful story and good lesson it brought, this children book is complemented with cartoon-like, detailed, multicolored and cheerful illustrations. Also, as nice add-on, the additional interactive content was provided real letters presented in an entertaining lift-the-flaps style which will intrigue young reader and keep kid engaged in the story. Therefore, taking into account nice and motivating story, beautiful artwork and interactive content, Herman's Letter is certainly picture book that can highly be recommended equally for all the elements that make some book for children great.
