KundenrezensionenHilfreichste Kundenrezensionen1 von 1 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Hulk smashes!Von schlimmerdurstYes, he's one of the best in smashing. And smashing he does a lot in this story. The story is captivating, deep and not overly long. A lot of very very nice scenes (as with the rabbit, or with betty in the cave) that Jeph Loeb is master of, where the Hulk is seen from a very different angle than the average comic shows, but still keeps the basic concept of the dumb brute that wants to be left in peace. The art is outstanding - the Hulk is displayed both as child that does not understand what's happening around him as well as a raging monster that smashes anything in its way, and both depictions are believable and blend into each other without effort - like when the Hulk is flabbergasted by a response by Betty, where his facial expression starts with dumbfounded, moves to "I'm going to start to cry", then over to angry and finally RAGE! Extremely well done. The "green glow" effect in the otherwise black and white scenes is nicely done and very ambient. Recommendation!
