Von Anzia Yezierska : Hungry Hearts before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Hungry Hearts:

KundenrezensionenHilfreichste Kundenrezensionen0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. ten very good storiesVon sopherlin this book yezierska presents 10 short stories dealing with the topic of jewish immigrants adapting themselves to the US, living their faith and struggling between the old and the new world. It shows the culture clash and thevarious problems of being poor, jewish and having to live on the lower east side.if you're already familiar with yezierska's work you won't find anything radically different from, eg. bread givers, but nevertheless the book's a pleasure to read. jewish life and life on the lower east side in the 1920's itself pops to life before your eyes. it's a masterpiece!
