A trip to rememberVon Helpful AdviceMission Rome written by Catherine Aragon and designed by Nada Orlic is a part of A Scavenger Hunt Adventure series the entertaining, innovative and educating series of books that help their readers to learn about particular city in a very special way.From the moment I saw the front cover of this book I knew this is something special I think the closest description would be this is the thinnest, yet greatest guide I would like to take with me on a trip and have great time.Though mainly written for the younger audience, Mission Rome would be also great read for the adults. In a very entertaining way this guide manages to present the best Rome can offer, all wrapped up in the game of scavenger hunt. Besides leading reader through the most known city sights, it will introduce you the city history, Italian language and many fascinating stories that even seasoned travelers some of them would hear for the very first time.As aforementioned, the whole guide is made like a game that you need to finish visiting all the city sights while doing some funny activities in process making your (next) visit to Rome something to remember for a long time.Overall, A Scavenger Hunt Adventure is something that cannot be recommended enough one has to see it from own eyes.I was given a copy of this book by the author for the purpose of unbiased review, while all the presented information is based on my impressions.0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Sine qua nonVon Angelos KanlisA great way to get kids motivated for sightseeing. A must have when traveling with kids. At the end the kid also gets a certificate (online).
