All my school years were spent in the country regions north of Dundee. For my last school year I traveled by Bus (1hr 20Min. each way)

every day from Inverkeilor to Dundee to attend a Pre-apprenticeship Engineering course (for boys in the 15/16 year age group) from August 1949 to July 1950. (Yes I'm now 80!) Classrooms were very close to the Wellgate Steps and the bottom of the Hilltown. The workshops were in Ann St. - All mentioned frequently in the book. For me, many memories of the war years and in particular Dundee.

Kurzbeschreibung Born in Dundee in 1938, Maureen Reynolds grew up in wartime Scotland, a young girl surrounded by adult concerns. There was the endless queuing for rations that never seemed to stretch quite far enough, the blackouts and the air raids. But, if times were hard, they were also simpler, and in Voices in the Street Maureen remembers with great fondness her early years with her wise old grandad, the enjoyment of riding on tram cars, the weekly wash house gossip and the people and places of her childhood. When she left school at fifteen, Maureen immediately started her working life with a job at the local sweetie factory, coming of age in the era of Teddy Boys and rock 'n' roll and enjoying the dancing with her best friend Betty. Then, as Maureen grew up, she found her love, only to see him borrowed in the name of National Service. But, through good times and bad, she would never forget growing up in Dundee. Pressestimmen "A wonderful journey down memory lane." The Courier
