In his beautifully realized first novel, Martin Wilson demonstrates a wonderful gift for finding the truth in human caring and for creating memorably multidimensional and engagingly sympathetic characters whom readers will welcome into their hearts. Michael Cart, former president of the ALA's Young Adult Library Services Association and the Assembly on Literature for Adolescents
Starred , Publishers Weekly, July 28, 2008: Insightfully evoked, Alex, James and their friends will leave a lasting impression on readers. Starred , Booklist, November 15, 2008: This is a strong debut, and Wilson shows admirable control of a complicated story that in less-accomplished hands could have spun out of control.
