Pacifists Take NoteVon Ein KundeThis book is a collection of answers to the age-old question: If a violent person threatened a loved one, what would you do? It is a treasured part of my library because it provides both simple responses (my favorite being courtesy of Joan Baez), and complex discussions of the values shifts necessary to to deny violence in all its forms. You won't come away from this book with a pat answer to a troubling question, but at least you will know there ARE answers. 0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Utopic? Von Rubens Nogueira The message of this book (and of the pacifist ideology) must sound naive, but it is the most sincere and accurate interpretation of Jesus' commandment "not to resist the evil person" and "love the enemy". If you ever asked yourself whether it is possible at all to put such a commandment into practice, this is probably THE book, even though the other books from Yoder are quite helpful.

Kurzbeschreibung John Howard Yoder helps answer the age-old question What would you do if someone was attacking your grandmother, husband, wife, daughter, or son? Yoder provides a variety of responses to this classic question: his own thorough ethical analysis along with the answers given by other writers such as Leo Tolstoy, Dale Brown, and Dale Aukerman and a variety of real-life stories of people who have discovered alternative responses to violence.
