IntenseVon HaidjiThis book is a true-life story of a mother attempting to raise two daughters with special needs.It is very intense, emotional and devastating.But in the middle of a nightmare, Laura found a partner, lover, and friend who supported her efforts to protect and raise both children with love and compassion.

Kurzbeschreibung
With Angel's Wings is the true story of Laura, a young wife and mother of a three-year-old daughter. Her husband, Kevin, a marine, is deployed overseas, leaving Laura to give birth to their second daughter and handle the two young children on her own. Thirteen days after the birth of her youngest, the pediatrician detects a heart murmur. That leads to just the first of multiple diagnoses for both of her daughters, sending Laura on an unexpected and emotional journey into the world of parenting medically-fragile, special needs children. Right when Laura fears she will break under the incredible pressure, she encounters the beauty of true love, in a most unexpected and unconventional way.

I am a hard-working mother of 4, a loving wife, and an unsuspecting author of a true medical drama/unconventional love story called With Angel's Wings. With Angel's Wings is my story. I wrote therapeutically as I was introduced to/initiated into life as a special needs mother. Years later friends, therapists, and nurses convinced me to share my tale. All names were changed in the book, out of respect for those who would not appreciate being mentioned by name, but aside from names, the story is 100% true. If, after reading With Angel's Wings, you are left with questions, please do not hesitate to ask. On the book's website (www.withangelswings.net) there is an "Ask the Author Forum", and all questions and feedback are more than welcome. Also on the website are an epilogue, "deleted scenes" and "real life" pictures that correlate with each of the book's chapters. Some of those pictures are featured in With Angel's Wings ~ A Trailer @ <http://youtu.be/d1feuCdH8dc> Thanks, and enjoy!
