Von Jason Aaron : Wolverine: Wolverine's Revenge (Wolverine (2010-2012)) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Wolverine: Wolverine's Revenge (Wolverine (2010-2012)):

KundenrezensionenHilfreichste Kundenrezensionen1 von 1 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Revenge Is Stupid - as We Can See hereVon KundenrezensionenLogan a.k.a. Wolverine a.k.a. John Howlett a.k.a. Weapon X has been to hell. Literally. And the devil has been ever so happy to see him go again. And now he wants to know who send him there. Researching, he finds the name of a group. The "Red Right Hand" has been looking for many ways to hurt him and he is determined to hurt them back. While he gets nearer his objective, we learn about the people who form this group and we learn a bit more about the hero of this series, too. And about the meaning of the proverb "The hell are other people". After this we learn about the worth of revenge - and of suffering, retribution and penance. And the definition of a man. Though quite graphic in its depiction of suffering and violence, this book is also quite philosophically if one is prepared to look at the less colourful pictures and at the questions that are not verbally answered - because the answers given in this book often come from a dubious source. I am very satisfied with having read this - and look forward to read it again.
