

[Mobile book] Your First Year in Ministry - What they didn't teach you in seminary (English Edition)

Your First Year in Ministry - What they didn't teach you in seminary (English Edition)

Von Glyn Norman

*ebooks / Download PDF / ePub / DOC / audiobook

DOWNLOAD

+

READ ONLINE

Produktinformation -Verkaufsrang: #1556329 in eBooksVerffentlicht am: 2012-09-25Erscheinungsdatum:
2012-09-25File Name: B009H9415A | File size: 34.Mb

Von Glyn Norman : Your First Year in Ministry - What they didn't teach you in seminary (English Edition) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Your First Year in Ministry - What they didn't teach you in seminary (English Edition):

KundenrezensionenHilfreichste Kundenrezensionen0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich.
Auerordentlich hilfreich - nicht nur fr Berufseinsteiger und Theologen!Von Marie-luise VogtSehr praktisches, leicht zu lesendes und anschauliches Buch mit trockenem Humor gewürzt und außerordentlich hilfreich (nicht nur) für Berufsanfänger im geistlichen Amt, sondern auch in anderen Bereichen. Die Lektüre des Buches bereitet auf die Erwartungen anderer und Anforderungen im Alltag in besonderer und ehrlicher Weise vor und bietet praktische und umsetzbare Hilfen. Aber auch für Leute, die bereits im Beruf stehen, ist es eine große Bereicherung und Hilfe zur Optimierung z.B. der Zeiteinteilung und beim Lernen, Wichtiges von Dringendem zu unterscheiden.

Kurzbeschreibung This excellent resource for new pastors and seminary students is designed to bridge the gap between the academic world, and the real world of actual ministry. Written by Glyn Norman, a pastor with over 20 years experience, this book will enable the new pastor to avoid the usual pitfalls of ministry, and hit the ground running. Filled with tips to save time and increase effectiveness, implementing any one of them would be worth the price of the book alone. Ideal as a gift for a new pastor, or seminary graduate gift. Chapters include: Chapter 1: Landing Your First Job What Are You Looking For? The Search Your Internet Footprint The Resum The Cover Letter References The Interviews Chapter 2: Dealing With Expectations Your Own Expectations The Expectations of the Elders/Leaders The Expectations of the Congregation The Whale and the Octopus God's Expectations Chapter 3: Time Management Effectiveness Priorities Planning Tips and Tools Chapter 4: Working With Volunteers The Great Resource Equipping Volunteers The Currency of Appreciation Chapter 5: Preaching Preparation A Balanced Approach My Method Resources (offline and online) Caution Chapter 6: Counseling Time Availability and Emotional Reserves Codependency You Are Not the Messiah The Issue May Not be Purely Spiritual Be Aware of Your Own Emotions Chapter 7: Self-Care Burnout Emotional Self-Care Physical Self-Care Spiritual Self-Care Mental Self-Care Relational Self-Care Chapter 8: Weddings The First Meeting Pre-Marriage Counseling The Vows The Rehearsal Dinner What To Share in the Ceremony The Wedding Day Sequence of Meetings Chapter 9: Funerals At a Time Like This ... The Funeral Service What To Share in the Funeral Message Followup Chapter 10: Hospital Visits Chapter 11: Conflict It's Going To Happen The Biblical Model Conflict With Members of the Congregation Conflict With Another Staff Member Testimonials: "Although seminaries drill the budding minister in theology, homiletics and parsing verbs, they generally fall dreadfully short in equipping a neophyte pastor to navigate through the muddled maze of ministry, the minefield of church politics and the daily grind of the mundane. This book is a gold mine of practical, hands-on, and gut-level advice and help for ministers of the gospel. Reading this book before I entered the ministry would have saved me a lot of time, stress and headaches" Richard Chip Kirk, International Minister, Operation Mobilization I have known Glyn for over 20 years. Even as a 'boy' in seminary he was able to speak into situations with refreshing simplicity and clarity. Nothing has changed, except perhaps for a lot more grey hairs caused by the years of ministry experience needed to write this book. If you want to stave off the grey hairs and thrive in ministry, this easy to read book will be worth the investment. Craig Rees, Senior Pastor, South Tampa Fellowship, Tampa, FL

Kurzbeschreibung This excellent resource for new pastors and seminary students is designed to bridge the gap between the academic world, and the real world of actual ministry. Written by Glyn Norman, a pastor with over 20 years experience, this book will enable the new pastor to avoid the usual pitfalls of ministry, and hit the ground running. Filled with tips to save time and increase effectiveness, implementing any one of them would be worth the price of the book alone. Ideal as a gift for a new pastor, or seminary graduate gift. Chapters include: Chapter 1: Landing Your First Job What Are You Looking For? The Search Your Internet Footprint The Resum The Cover Letter References The Interviews Chapter 2: Dealing With Expectations Your Own Expectations The Expectations of the Elders/Leaders The Expectations of the Congregation The Whale and the Octopus God's Expectations Chapter 3: Time Management Effectiveness Priorities Planning Tips and Tools Chapter 4: Working With Volunteers The Great Resource Equipping Volunteers The Currency of Appreciation Chapter 5: Preaching Preparation A Balanced Approach My Method Resources (offline and online) Caution Chapter 6: Counseling Time Availability and Emotional Reserves Codependency You Are Not the Messiah The Issue May Not be Purely Spiritual Be Aware of Your Own Emotions Chapter 7: Self-Care Burnout Emotional Self-Care Physical Self-Care Spiritual Self-Care Mental Self-Care Relational Self-Care Chapter 8: Weddings The First Meeting Pre-Marriage Counseling The Vows The Rehearsal Dinner What To Share in the Ceremony The Wedding Day Sequence of Meetings Chapter 9: Funerals At a Time Like This ... The Funeral Service What To Share in the Funeral Message Followup Chapter 10: Hospital Visits Chapter 11: Conflict It's Going To Happen The Biblical Model Conflict With Members of the Congregation Conflict With Another Staff Member Testimonials: "Although seminaries drill the budding minister in theology, homiletics and parsing verbs, they generally fall dreadfully short in equipping a neophyte pastor to navigate through the muddled maze of ministry, the minefield of church politics and the daily grind of the mundane. This book is a gold mine of practical, hands-on, and gut-level advice and help for ministers of the gospel. Reading this book before I entered the ministry would have saved me a lot of time, stress and headaches" Richard Chip Kirk, International Minister, Operation Mobilization I have known Glyn for over 20 years. Even as a 'boy' in seminary he was able to speak into situations with refreshing simplicity and clarity. Nothing has changed, except perhaps for a lot more grey hairs caused by the years of ministry experience needed to write this book. If you want to stave off the grey hairs and thrive in ministry, this easy to read book will be worth the investment. Craig Rees, Senior Pastor, South Tampa Fellowship, Tampa, FL ber den Autor und weitere Mitwirkende Glyn Norman has worked in the business world, for the British Government, as a church planter in Berlin, Germany and as a pastor in California and Florida. In preparation for ministry, he attended London Bible College (now London School of Theology) where he achieved an honors degree in Theology. With over 20 years ministry experience, Glyn realized that there was much to being an effective pastor that was not taught in seminary, and out of that realization, this book was born. Glyn is the husband of but one wife, Cathleen, and the father of Landon and Cicely. His interests include exegeting popular culture, listening to 80s and baroque classical music, reading The Economist, Star Trek (The Next Generation), soccer (English, of course) and table tennis (which he claims is a real sport).